

The winners appointed!

Among all the exciting pictures that we got, twelve were selected by the jury and displayed at the AHA festival, together with the theme for the contest. These were the selected pictures:

The visitors to the festival could vote for their favorite among the twelve and in the afternoon the third day, we had the winners of first, second and third place, based on the number of votes:

First place

Second place

Third place

We congratulate the winners and thank all the contestants for their contributions.
